

Birmingham Mail

16th August 2011

PPDG takes office space in new move

A MAJOR deal involving Midlands property companies Bond Wolfe and Real Estate Investors has seen Pertemps People Development Group (PPDG) take offices in the Black Country.

PPDG has agreed five-year leases on 4,500 sq ft premises at Bond Wolfe-owned Waterloo Court, 31 Waterloo Road, Wolverhampton, and 6,000 sq ft at REI-owned Guardian House, Cronehills Linkway, West Bromwich.

James Mattin, Bond Wolfe managing partner, said: "We were delighted to assist Pertemps People Development Group with their recent office relocations in both West Bromwich and Wolverhampton, where our ability to offer quality accommodation on flexible lease terms meant we could fulfil their separate requirements at each location."

PPDG is a market leader in helping disadvantaged job seekers to get work.